COGAN, District Judge.

ORDER

This Court is presiding over the three cases captioned above, brought under the Fair Labor Standards Act and corresponding provisions of New York law. It has come to the attention of the Court that the Secretary of Labor has commenced an action entitled Scalia v. Ernie's Auto Detailing Inc., No. 20-cv-17785 (D. N.J.), which raises similar allegations to those in the three cases. The Court invites the Secretary to advise this Court by January 30, 2021 whether he has any position with regard to consolidating these cases in one forum, or whether discovery should be coordinated, or whether the cases in this Court should be stayed pending the outcome of his New Jersey case, or anything else relating to the pendency of these four actions. Should the Secretary accept this invitation, any of the parties in the three cases listed above may reply within 14 days of the Secretary's submission. The parties are urged to confer with the Secretary to determine if complete or partial agreement can be reached as to the advice invited by this Order.

The Clerk of Court is directed to add the Secretary as an "Interested Party" to each of the three actions pending in this Court, using the following contact information, so that he receives notice of this Order:
